VISIONS

Visions that keep stirrin my soul
Visions that will never grow old
Go ahead and live all your fantasies
Helps you get from where you are to where you want to be
You do the best you can and you make your mistakes
If you can't do it all, just a taste will do
Just a taste of . . . Visions

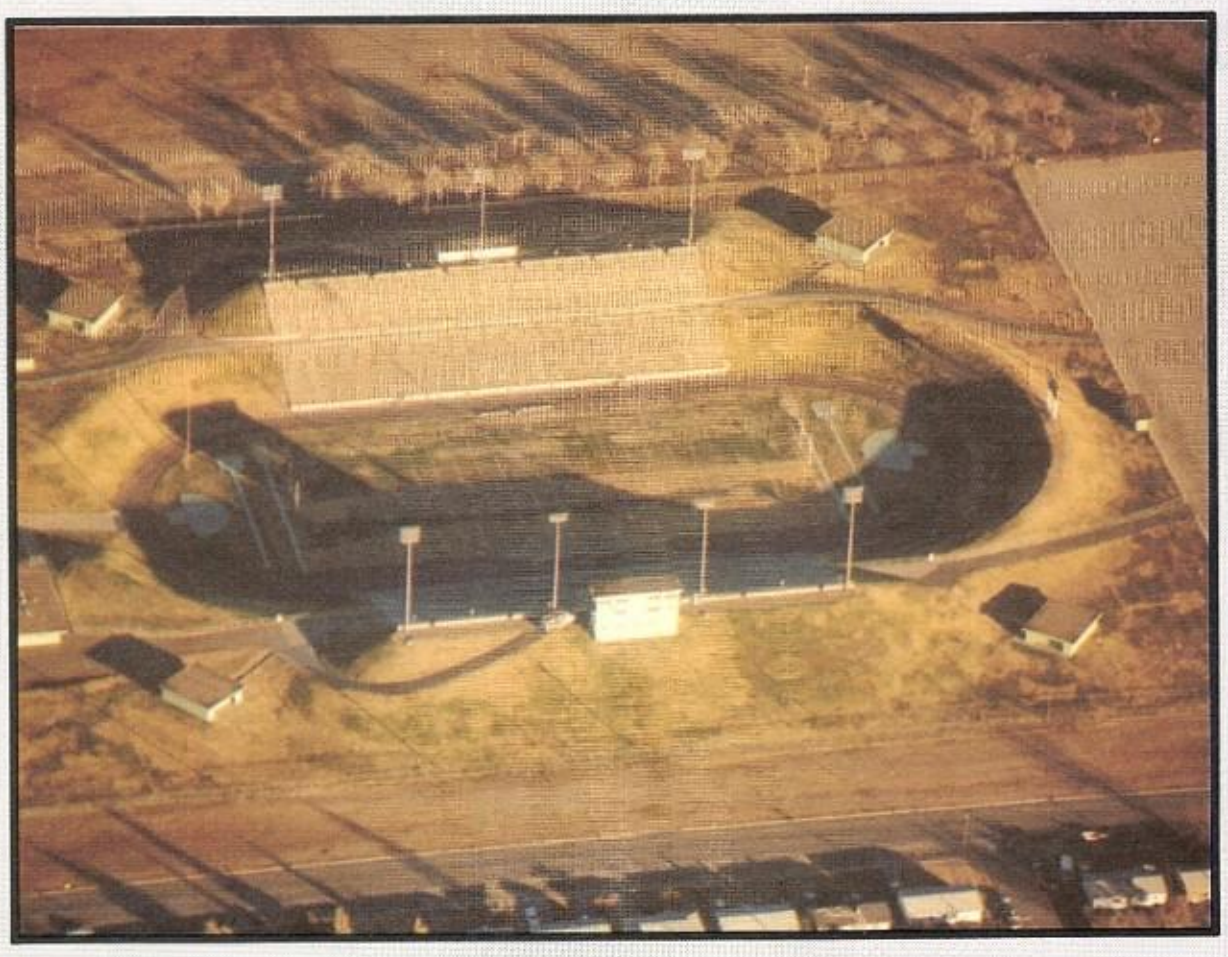
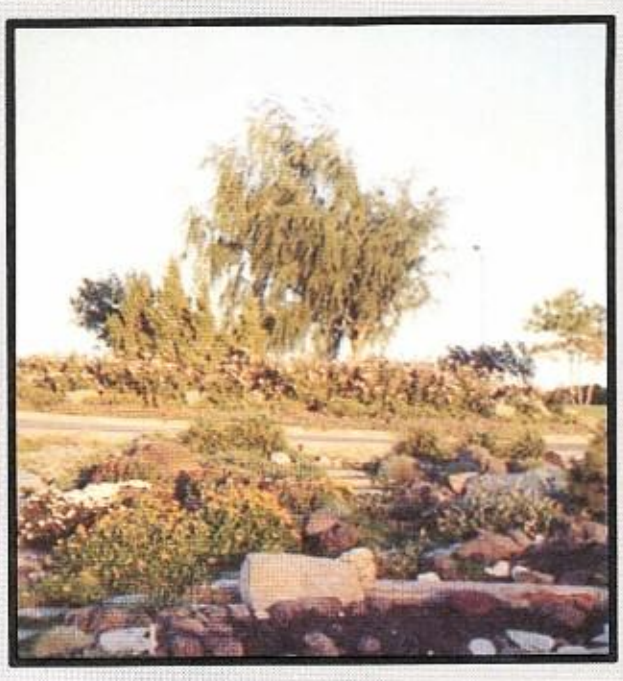
Visions That Keep Stirrin' My Soul

Memories of Caprock will always be with us. We have thoughts of old friends and special places that we'll always keep in the back of our minds. And as we grow older and those memories begin to fade, we can look at this book and relive those . . . visions.

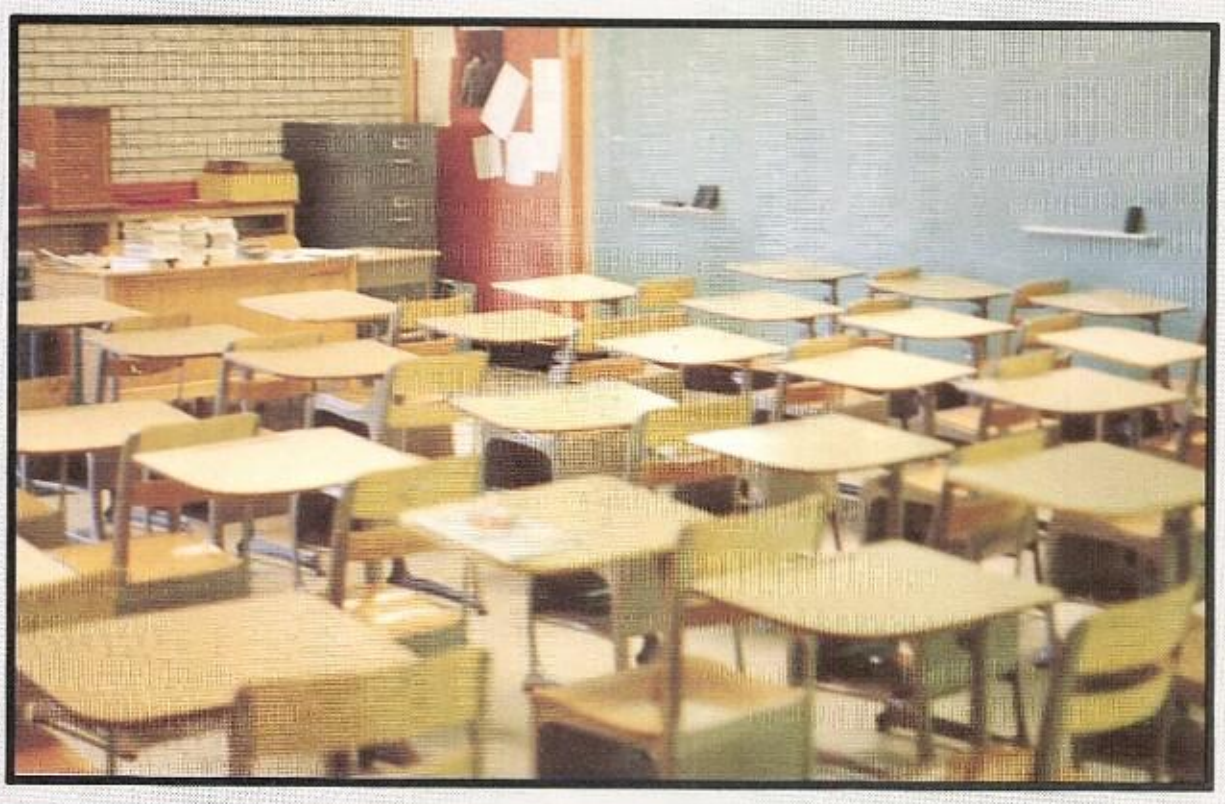


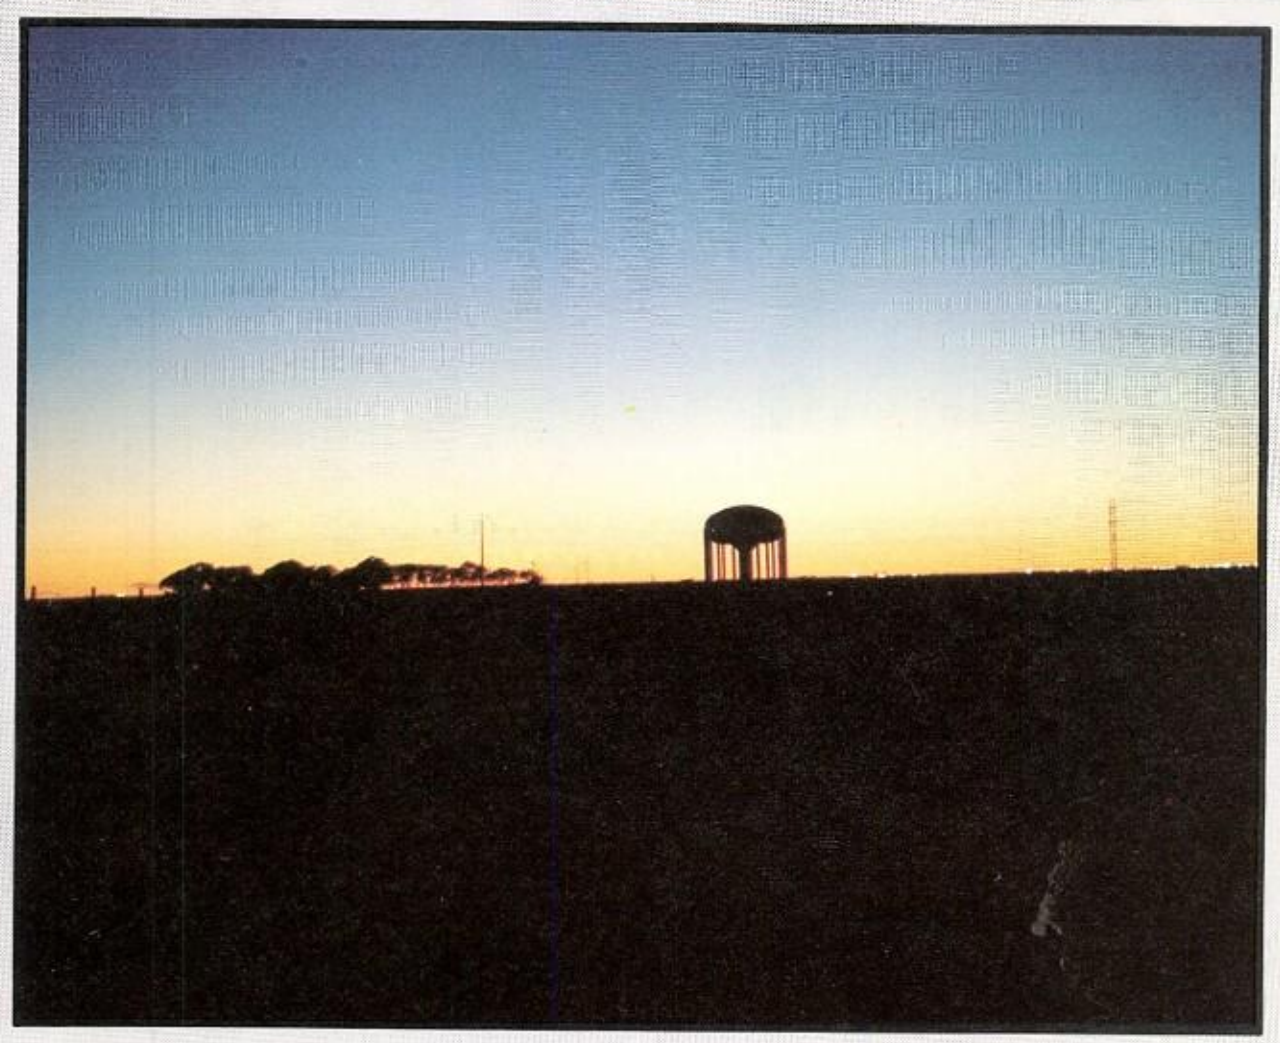


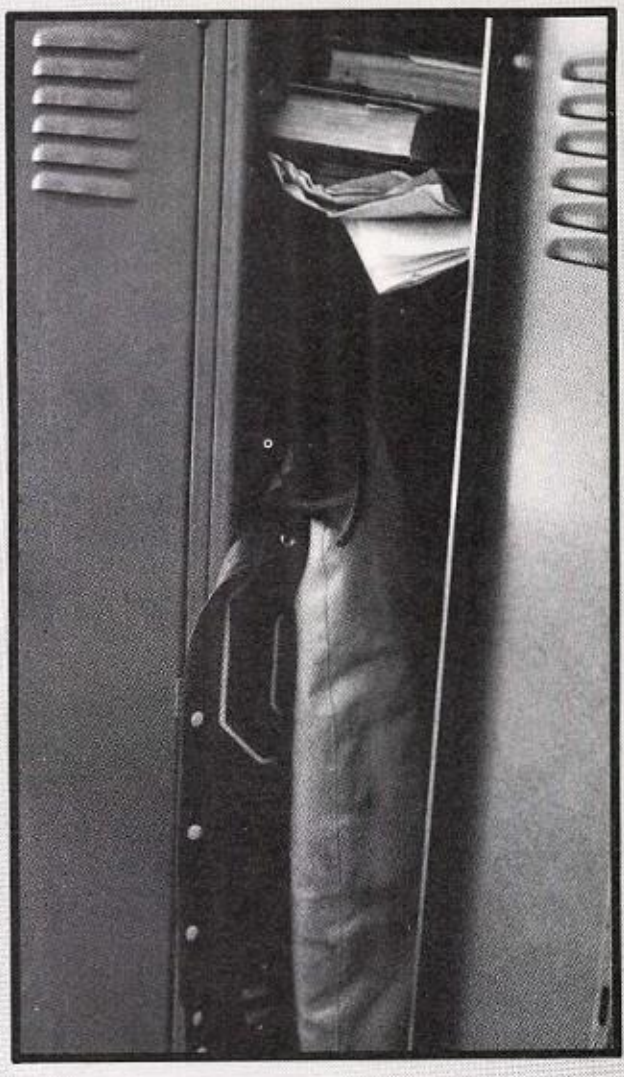
Jeff.

Well, another year has come + gone + pretty fast at that. I really had a blast last year + I hope you did too! Luck always in your ~~future~~ future years to come!

Love,
Sara

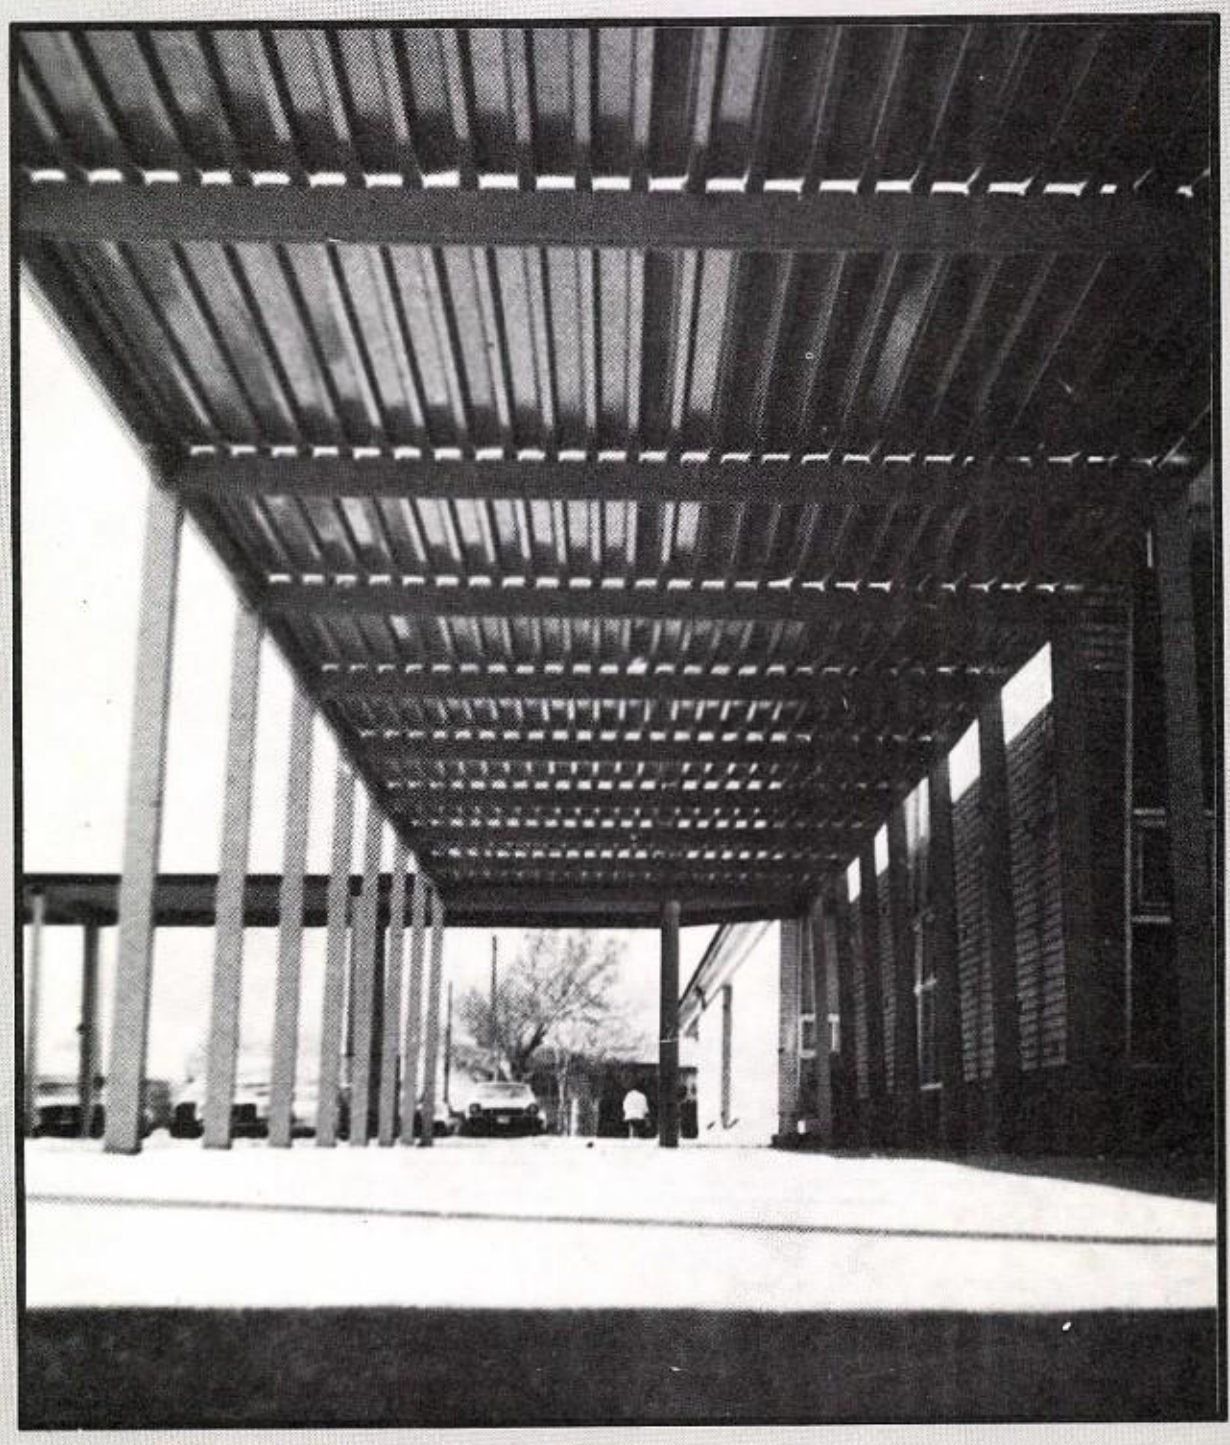


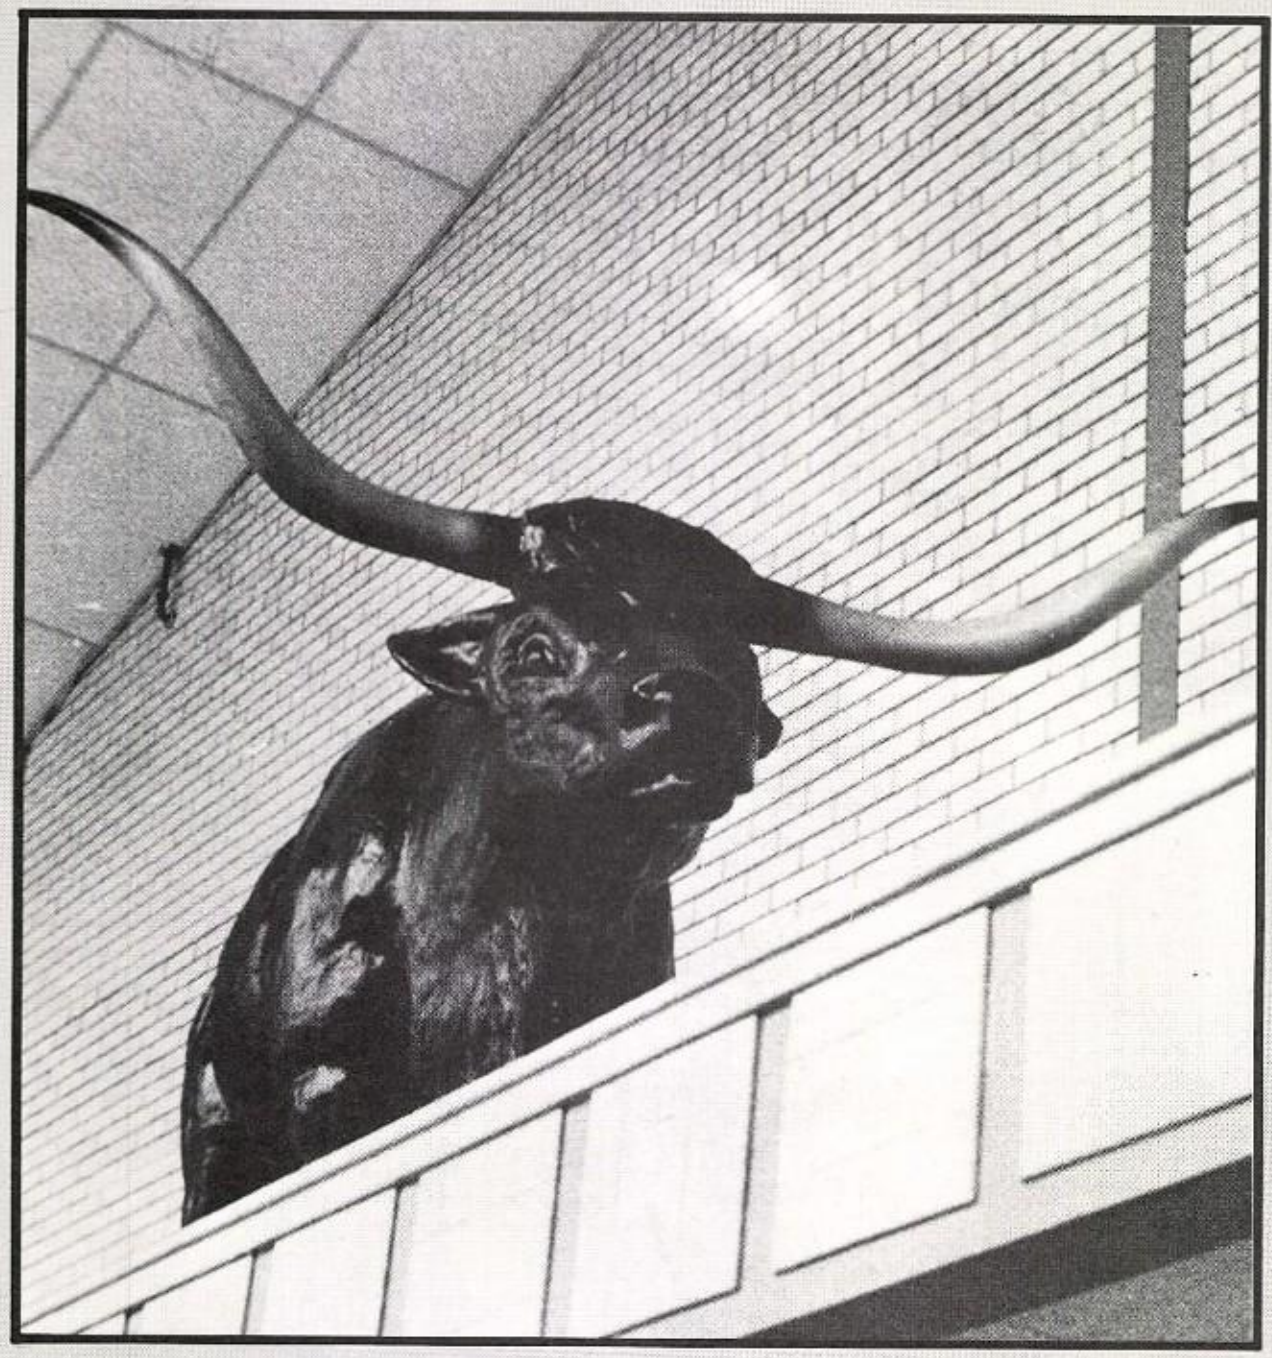


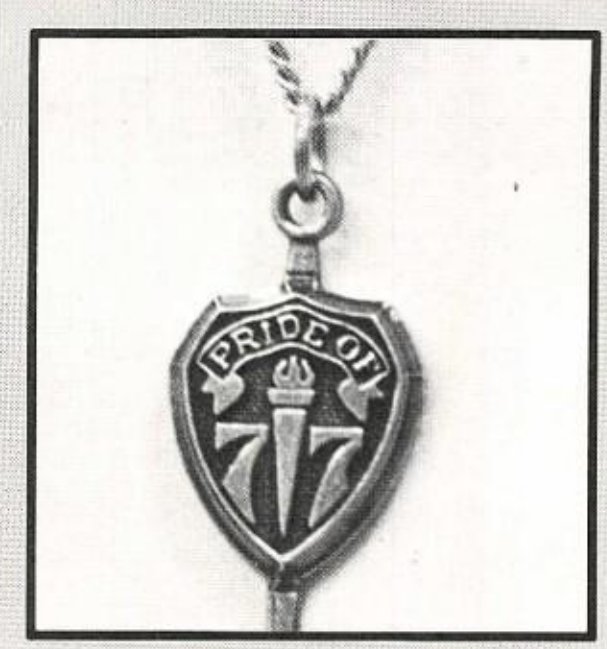


Visions That Will Never Grow Old

People will be different and the school may change in appearance, but it will always be Caprock. And when we leave, we will remember it as the school we all grew to love and cherish. We will remember these special, endless . . . visions.







CAPROCK HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

OUR LOVE FOR THEE WILL EVER BE,
FROM NOW TILL ETERNITY.

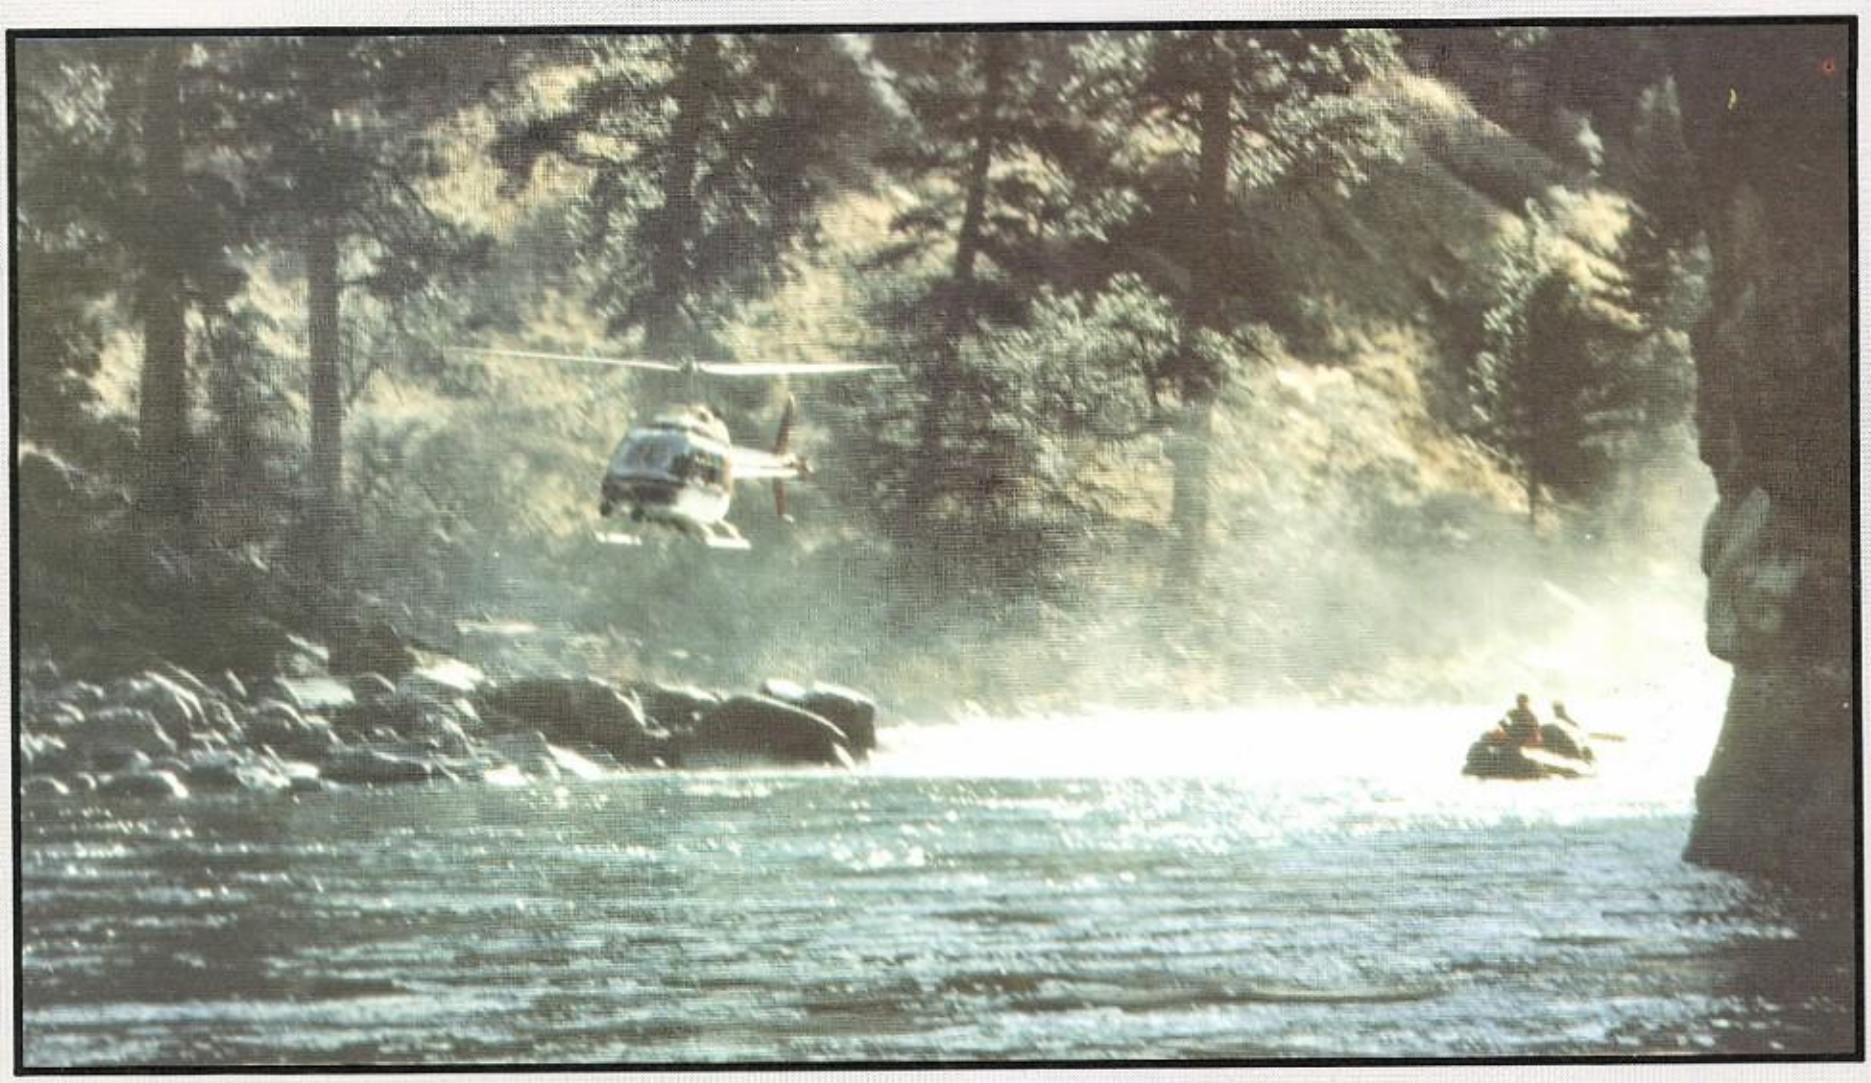
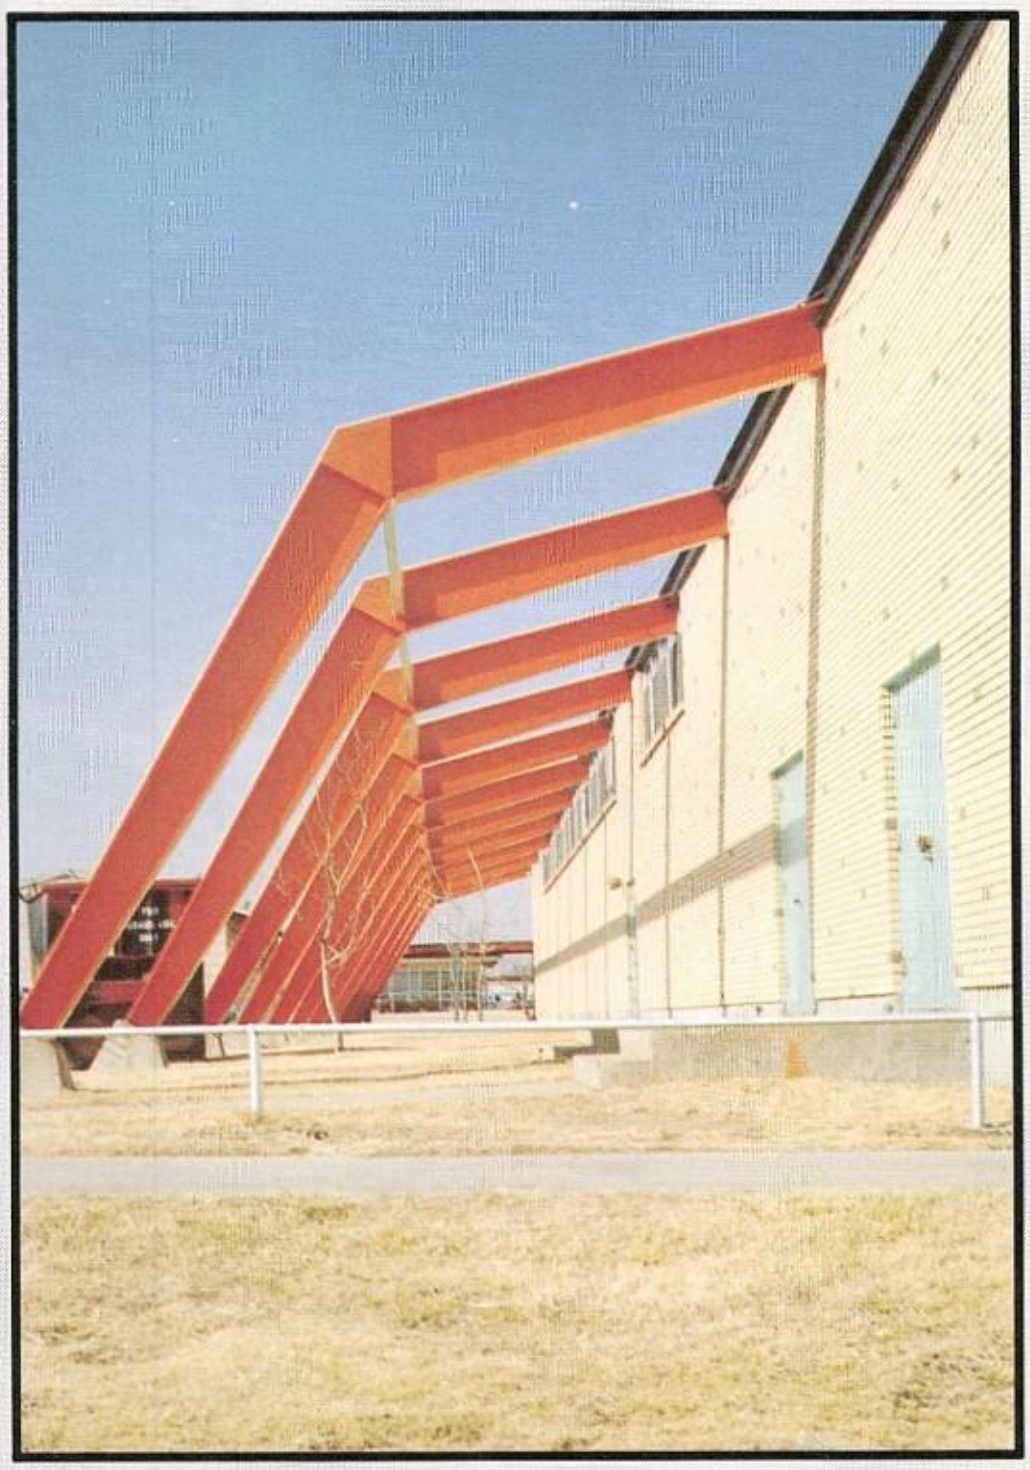
Go Ahead and Live All Your Fantasies

Someday maybe your wildest dreams will come true. They can, because life is what you make it. Your visions of the future are yours . . . your visions of the past are ours.





Nice having you

Alan Downe

Helps You Get From Where You Are to Where You Wanna Be.

What will we be doing ten years from now? This is question no one can answer. You've got decisions to make, and whatever you decide, right or wrong, will affect your life ten years from now. Make the right decisions and set your visions high.

To a real nice guy who just might be able to make it through football the rest of the year. I'am glide
I know you, mayle

Friends always Tim.

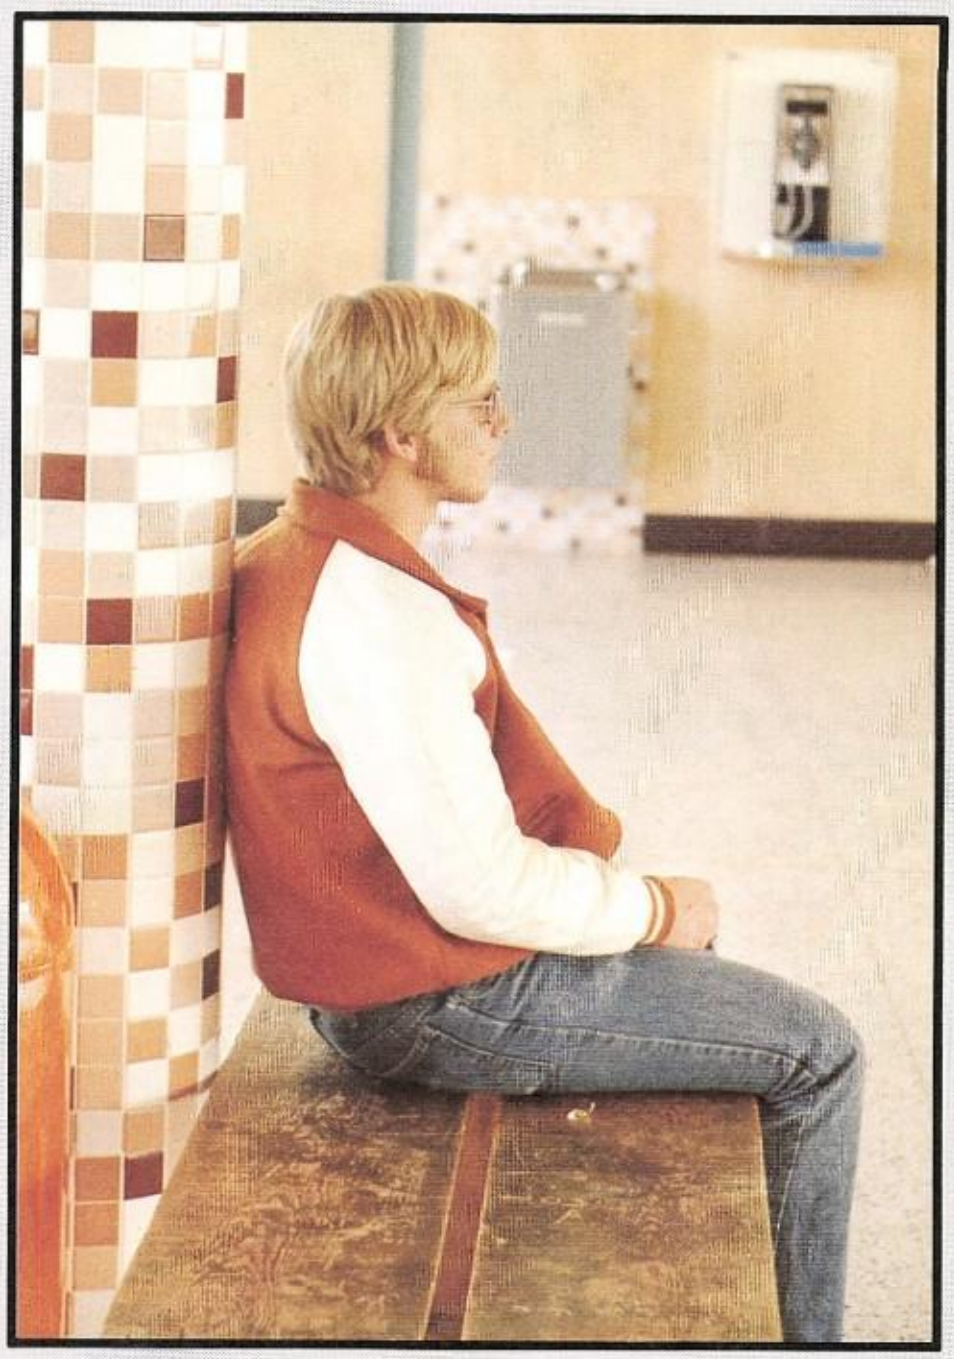
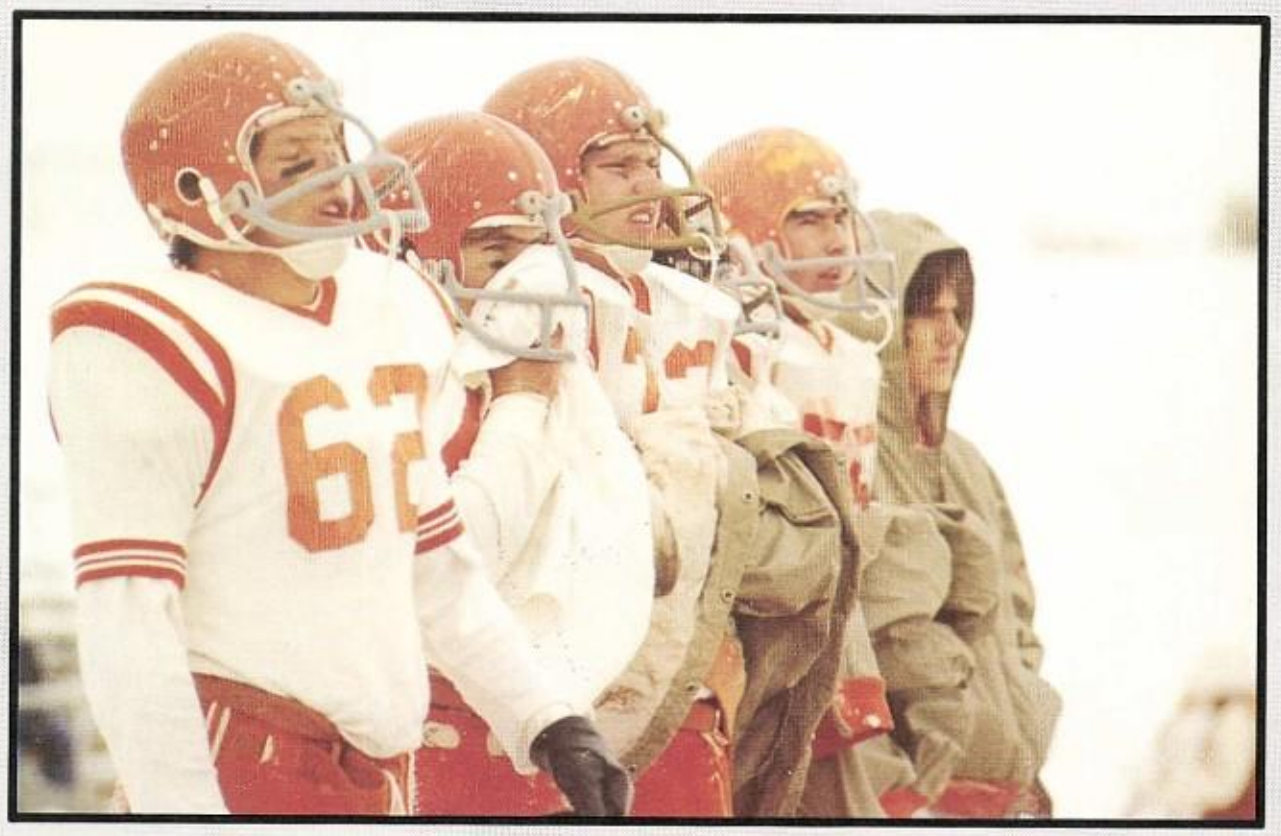
You Do the Best You Can and You Make Your Mistakes

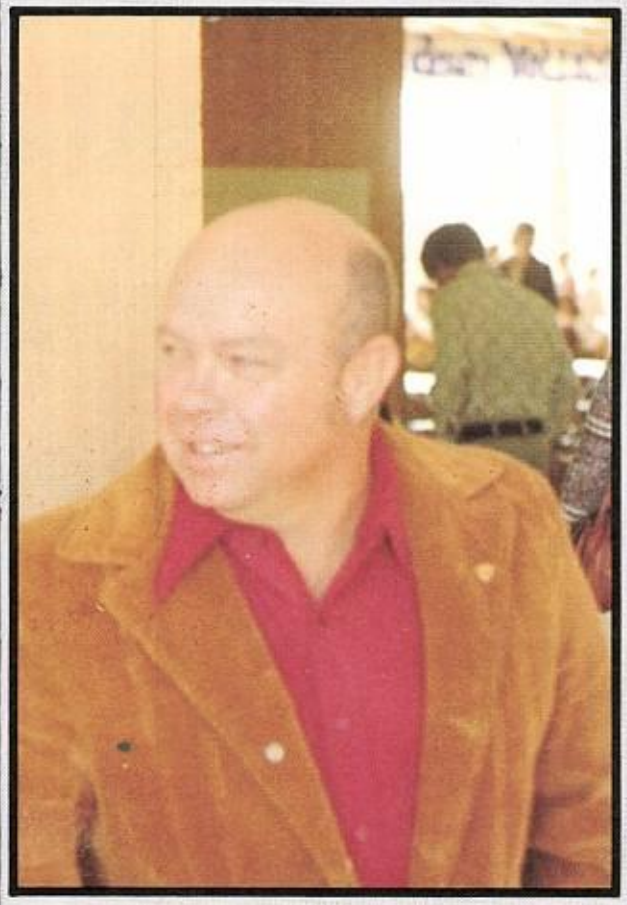
Some mistakes are easily forgotten and others are never forgotten. You can outlive some mistakes and others cling to you for the rest of your life. When you look back at your years of school, forget your mistakes and remember that you did the best you could because there is no one else like you.

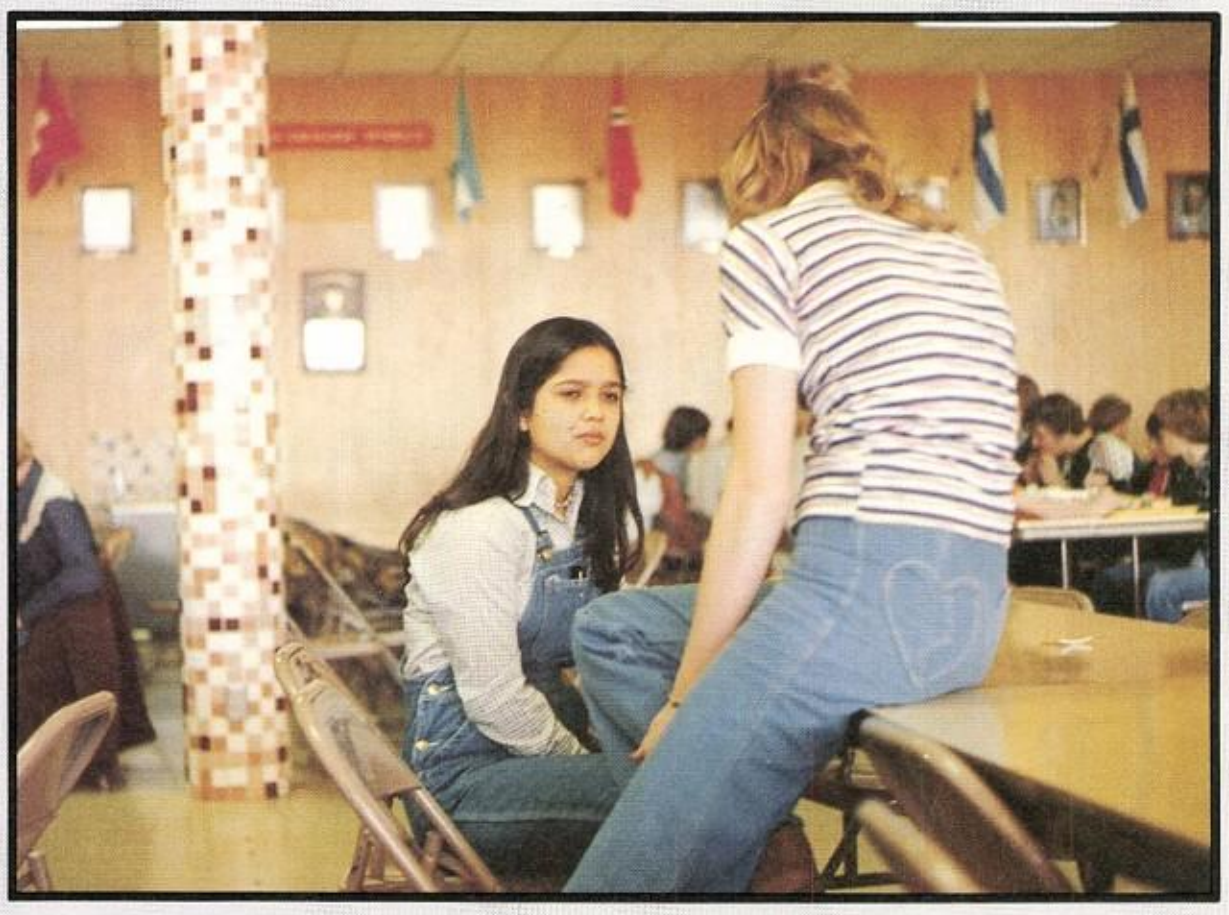


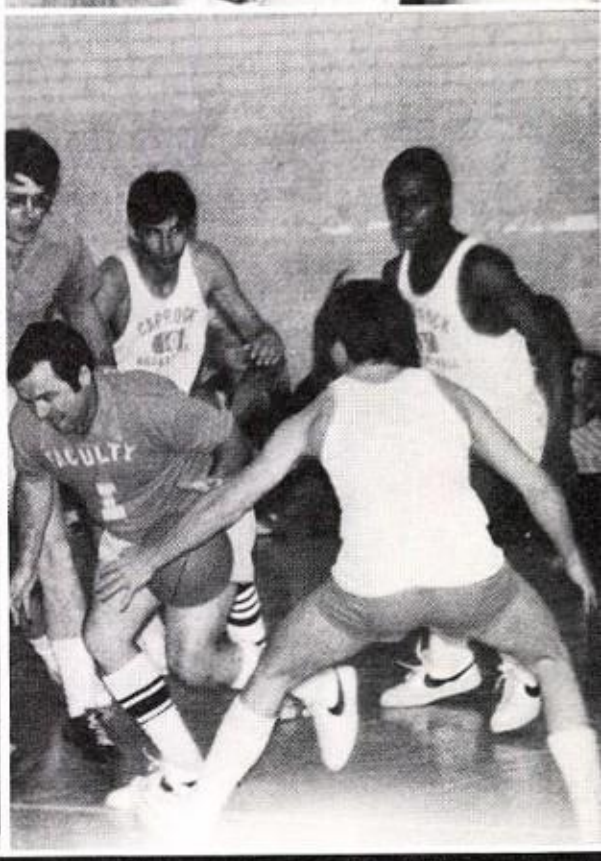


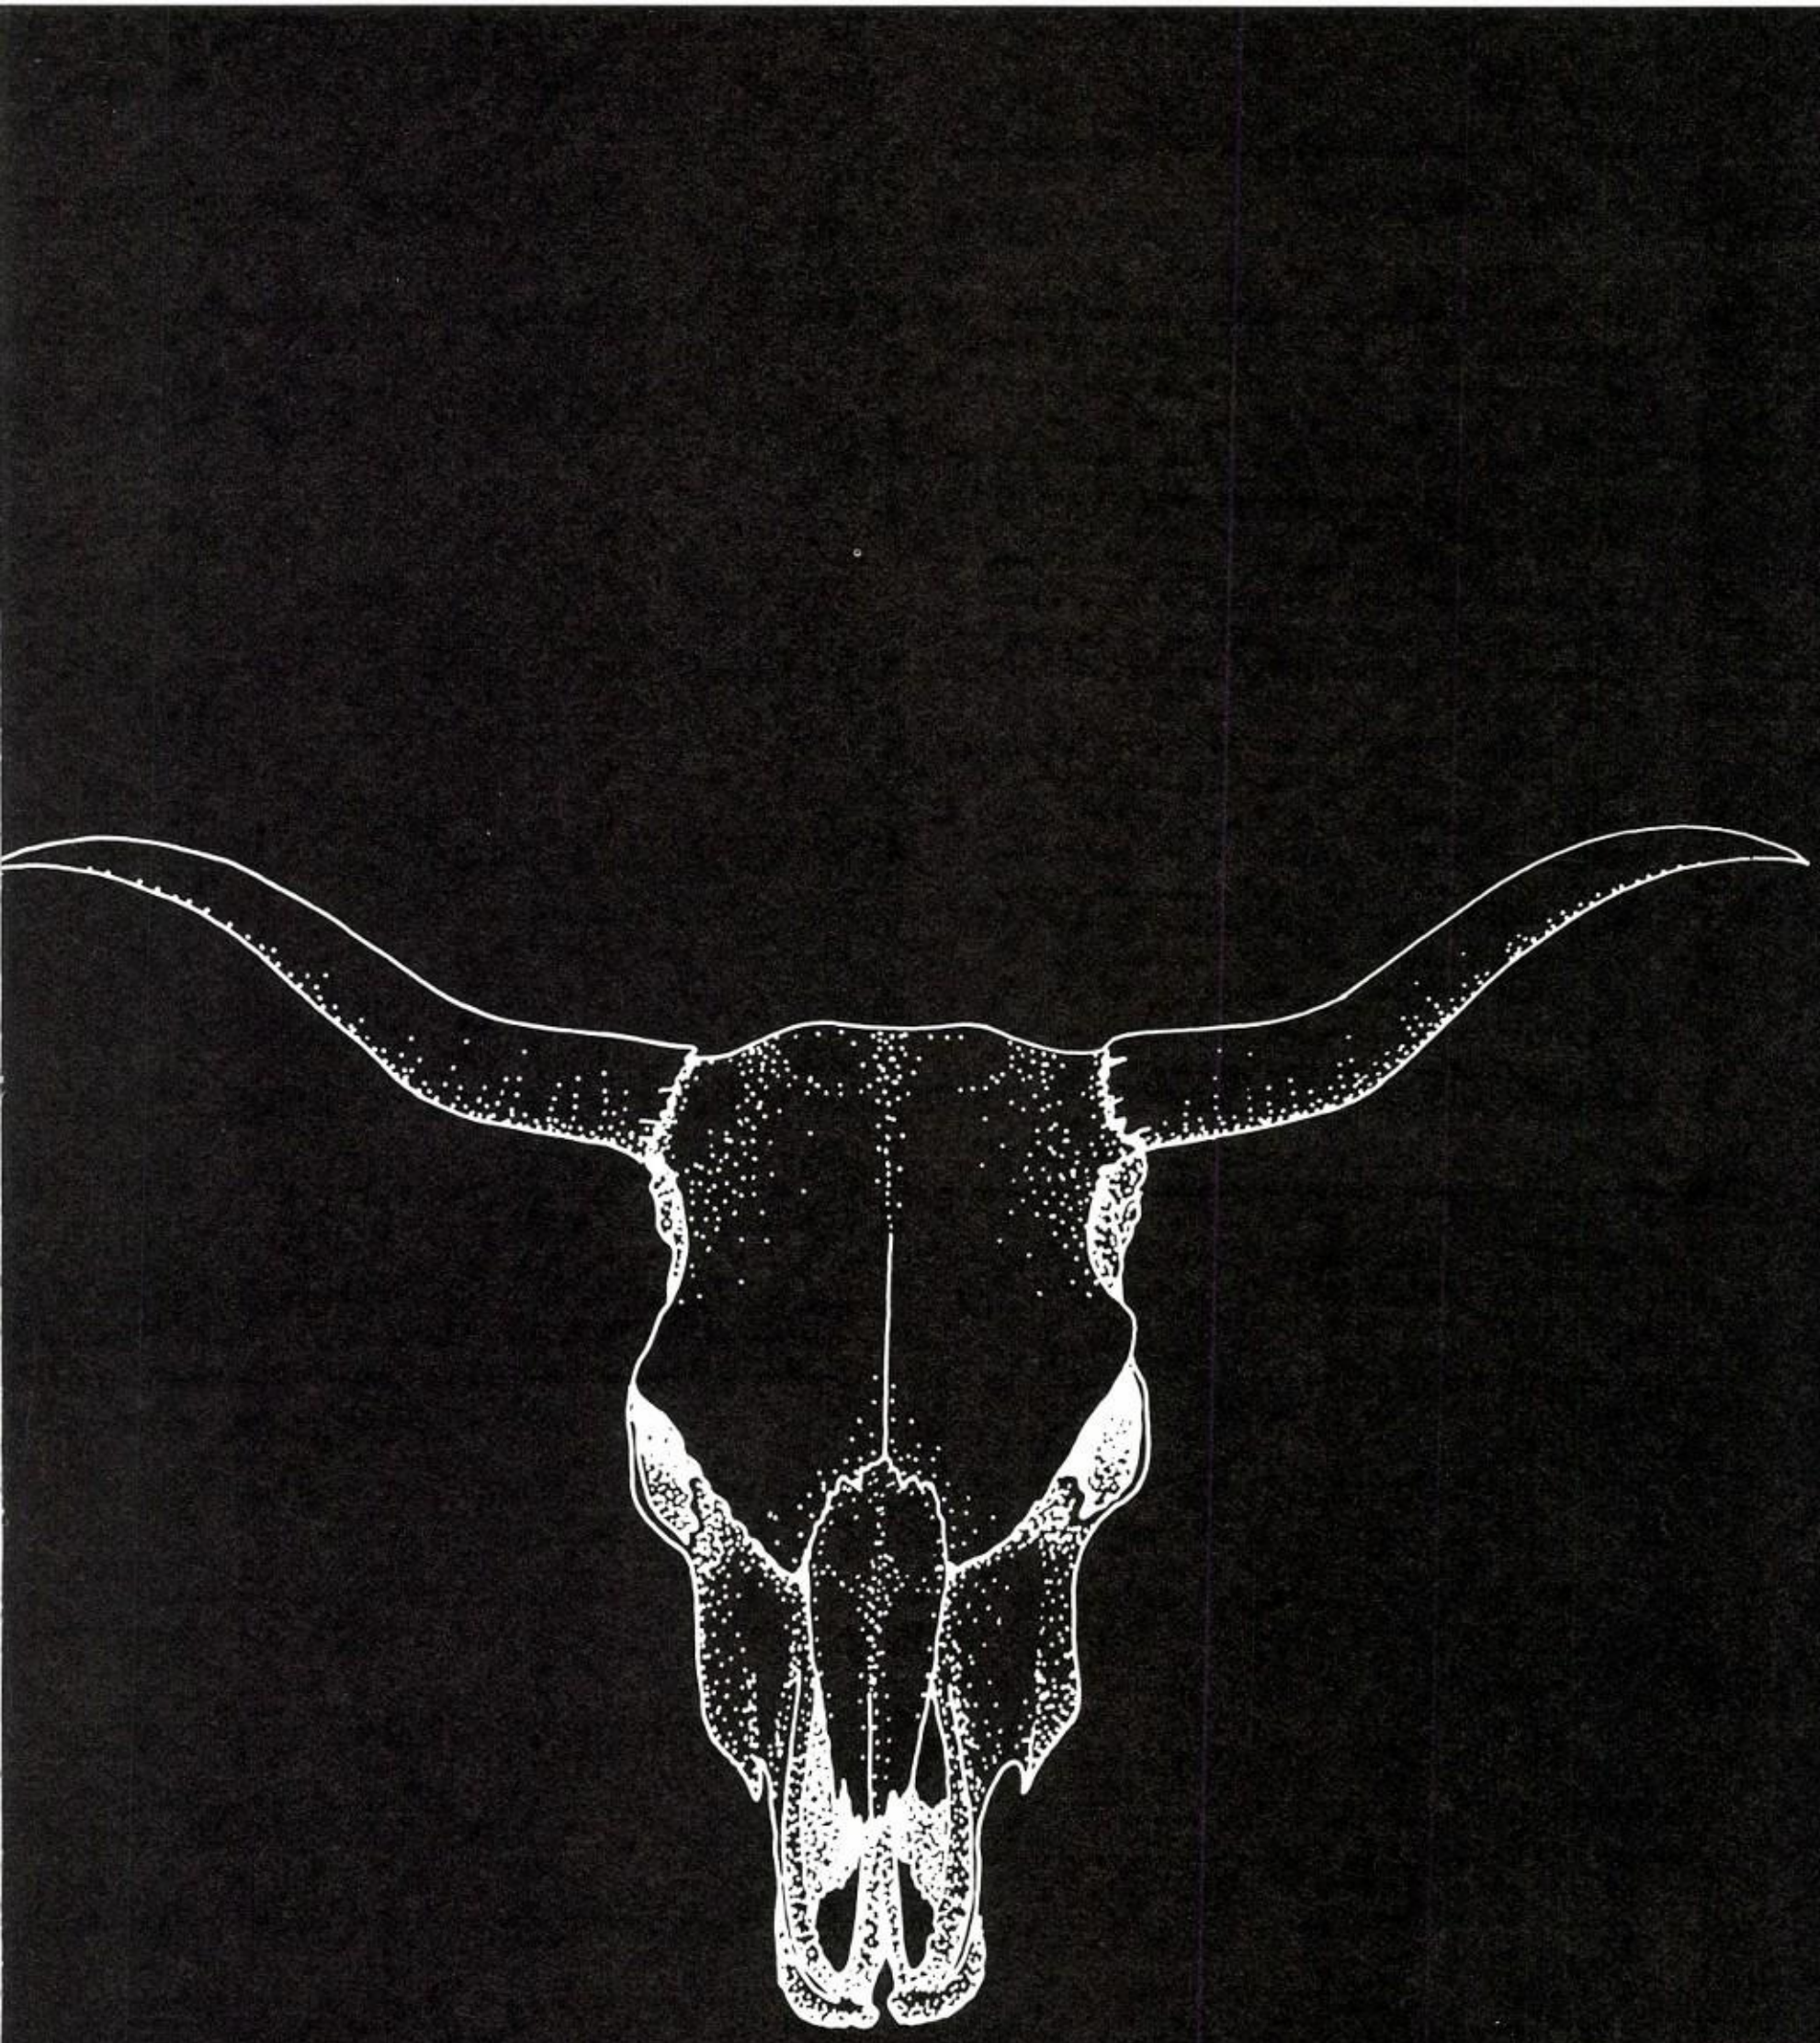
If You Can't Do It All, Just a Taste Will Do, Just a Taste of . . . Visions.

You couldn't have done everything that Caprock offered but you did do what was important to you. Maybe you got a good taste of high school life or maybe you just touched it, but we were here to help each other. We all made impressions in someone's mind or life, some good and some bad. But good will always outlive bad and when we think back we will see Caprock as not a school but people. You can't forget this taste because you will always remember it in your visions.









STUDENTLIFE

Dear Longhorns

Thank you all for sharing your year with me. These days have passed so happily and so fast that I can't believe they are over. Now I've got a great memory to look back on here at Capitol where everybody has great spirit and loves it so much. I'm so proud to be a Longhorn.

I still remember my first day at school. I was so scared and didn't know what to do at all, but many friendly hellos from you made me at ease again.

My memories include R.O.T.C., my happy days with my American family which were so emotional and unforgetable, dragging Polk, and school dances which we don't have in Japan. Yes, there are so many things that I can hardly count, but all these things are what I'll never forget.

But what I appreciate most is "You" — Longhorns, teachers, and my American family. You will always be my dearest friends. You'll never leave my heart.

Love forever, Jun♡

Malcolm McQuoid, a senior, and his sister Grace, a sophomore, came to Texas from Ireland. Rev. McQuoid is pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church where Malcolm and Grace participate actively in the church youth group. Grace enjoys English immensely, but Malcolm prefers psychology.

Asked about her future plans, Grace replied, "I have no idea at all what to do with my future, but I'll be here as a junior next year. Hopefully!"

Malcolm said of his future plans, "I would like to attend Amarillo College next year with a major in psychology."

Pep Rallies Boost Spirit

Caprock has always been noted for its high spirit, throughout the year for each and every sport.

Cheerleaders jump and lead yells, students or clubs present skits and the classes compete with each other to be the loudest, most spirited class. The band always provides music at the pep rallies adding to the excitement of students, the players, and the teachers.

Caprock's 1976 Homecoming celebration included the presentation of class princesses, a football game, and a dance afterwards.

Although the Longhorns were defeated 14-8 by the Canyon Eagles, the dance in the commons, sponsored by Health Occupations, was a great success.

Homecoming princesses were crowned Friday, September 17 during the homeroom pep rally. Senior Pam Noel, junior Debbie Thompson, sophomore Luisa Renteria and freshman Sara Errington were elected by the student body.

Faculty, Students Clash in Annual Sports Events

Once again the Fighting Faculty clashed with the Studly Students in money raising games held during homeroom.

Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the women's volleyball game, while Student Council sponsored the men's basketball game.

With the CHS gym packed to capacity, the fans enjoyed suspenseful competition with hilarious side show entertainment and plenty of refreshments.

Requiem Goes to State

(3)

(5) (4)

From Amarillo to Austin, Caprock's one-act play, Requiem, has gone farther than any other in the history of our school.

District at Amarillo College, Area at Snyder, and Regionals at Texas Tech in Lubbock all saw Requiem taking first place honors. These proved to be the stepping stones for the cast, crew, and director which took them to the state level.

There were 231 plays in AAAA to compete in the state of Texas. Requiem was one of the eight top plays traveling to the University of Texas in Austin to compete in the AAAA State UIL One-Act Play Contest.

Written and directed by Mr. Jerome McDonough, Requiem is the only original play in the 51 years of UIL 4-A One-Act Play competition to advance to the state level. For a new Caprock record, Requiem is not only the first play to ever win district for our school, but also area, regionals and the first to go to state. This is also the first time any team has made it to state in any event from Caprock.

As for individual honors, the play accumulated one medal for best actress, seven medals for all-star cast members, and two honorable mentions for cast members.

Assemblies Highlight Homeroom

(3)

Morning assemblies bring excitement and entertainment into the daily routines of Caprock students. Some programs are sponsored by various clubs and organizations for fund raising; others are services from outside groups.

Assemblies range from pantomime shows to talent contests, from dance contests to mini-concerts, and from pep rallies to class elections.

Mr. Jerome McDonough and his stage crew work with sponsors to handle technical duties of all assemblies.

Sadie Hawkins Day Promotes the Ms. Movement

(1)

May 6 Caprock gals got their chance to do a little "Don Juaning" with Caprock's annual Sadie Hawkins Day. Sponsoring the funfilled, busy day was the student council.

To get the day rolling was daisy distribution and the Horn Korn show. The slave sale in the auditorium followed the show.

Lunch time brought the pie-eating contests and the car bash in the cafeteria parking lot.

After school all four classes of women had a softball tournament with the men of each class as coaches.

Bringing the day to a close was the Sadie Hawkins dance held in the commons.

Seniors Display Tears and Laughter at Graduation

Seniors of 1977 came to the climax of their public schooling years with the long awaited graduation ceremonies. There were mixed emotions displayed of happiness, sadness, fulfillment, and relief.

Baccalaureate was held on May 22 with Dick Marcear addressing all four city high schools' seniors. May 25 marked the end of a long journey for Caprock seniors with graduation ceremonies.

Senior parents sponsored the all-night party for seniors and their guests at the WTSU Activities Center to bring the year to a close.

Counselors Help Students Choose Courses and Colleges

Working to coordinate students schedules and see that each student is in a class that best suits his or her needs is the job of the counselors. Helping students to formulate schedules which will coincide with their career plans and assisting seniors to obtain scholarships are among their other responsibilities.

Often, our counselors sponsor extra-curricular student activities in an effort to communicate with students in every area.

Caprock's counselors are Charles Bacon, June Darnell, Patsy Bunch, Gloria Rameriz and Jon Leasure.

Office Workers Handle All Caprock's Clerical Chores

(1)

The attendance office is one of the busiest places at Caprock. This staff of five must keep up with over fifteen-hundred students who are constantly checking in and out of school. They must handle absentees and clear up truancies.

This year's staff are Mrs. Jean Howe, attendance clerk; Mrs. Helen Lopez, clerk; Mrs. Fran Cawthorn, attendance clerk; Mrs. Bessie Gerken, Bookkeeper; and Mrs. Sue Touchon, counselor aide.

Teachers' Aides Ease Work Load

Caprock has hired four teacher aides to help alleviate the problem of paperwork on the behalf of the faculty members. These aides help by running off tests and worksheets, typing for the teachers, running errands and guarding the halls at lunch.

This year's aides are Mrs. Roxie Clemmence, science building; Mrs. Debbie Hurst, history building; Mrs. Charlene Cole, English building; and Mrs. Jeanice Reynolds, vocational aide.

Custodians and Cafeteria Workers Keep Us Together

The people most taken for granted are the ones that clean the building and prepare the food. Mr. Rogers, the head custodian, heads a staff that cleans the halls and rooms every day. There are two crews, one for the day and one for night.

Mrs. Margarette Hill heads the cafeteria help, who every day come in and prepare the food and have to clean up afterwards. Both groups of workers have to clean up after 1500 students and should be thanked.

Others Are Helpful to Us

Capable nurses and librarians are valuable assets, especially if you need a good book to read while you're sick!

Mrs. Opal Sims, serving Caprock as school nurse, is not only a registered nurse, but also a licensed beautician with her own beauty shop. Mrs. Sims examines students who become ill or injured during school hours. Although she does not have the authority to administer medication, she can make diagnoses and refer the students to a doctor or send them home.

Head librarian, Mrs. Maurene Mashburn, can't send anyone home, but she has a book to help cure any ill. Mrs. Mashburn and her assistant, Mrs. Jackie Taylor, are kind and hlepful to anyone needing assistance in the library. Caprock's library is open throughout the school day from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Many teachers encourage use of the library by allowing students to study there during class.

All aspects of communication are covered in the journalism department, headed by Miss Luinda Verden.

First year journalism prepares students for more advanced staff work and teaches basic journalistic skills.

Photography and advertising classes lead students into more specialized areas of publications.

Many long, tedious hours of time and work are donated to Caprock by the staffs of the La Saga and the Tumbleweed Times. Staff members work late into the night to prepare publications by set deadlines.

Caprock's yearbook, the La Saga, is a summer edition including all the school events of the previous year.

Issues of the Tumbleweed Times are printed monthly, informing the student body and faculty of current events and highlighting student life with features and editorials.

Each year Caprock's day trades students build a home under the instruction of six well qualified teachers. The house, built and furnished entirely by Caprock students, is then put on the market and sold by the Amarillo Board of Realtors.

Electrical trades, building trades, piping trades, bricklaying, drafting and home economics all play an important part in the successful completion of the house. Caprock's 1976-77 home is three-bedroom with a fireplace and garage, located at 3101 Pittsburgh, near Caprock.

Day trades teachers are Mr. Raymond Custer, Electrical Trades; Mr. Gene Davis, Building Trades; Mr. Bill Kelley, Auto Mechanics; Mr. Charlie Johnson, Piping Trades; Mr. Hubert Wilhelm, Bricklaying; and Mr. Jack Lavender, Mechanical Trades.

Horns Tie for Second Half District Crown

Picked to finish no higher than last in the pre-season poll, the Longhorns were determined to ignore that statement.

Baseballers finished with a 12-10 season record. During the first half of district, the Horns finished with a 1-3 mark. The second half was a different story. The team finished with a superb 3-1 mark tieing with Amarillo High. However, AHS tied the first half, so they advanced to the bi-district competition.

The Horns finished in first place in the Hereford Invitational Baseball Tournament in February.

Coach Bob Andrews was very pleased with this year's performance. "We didn't have the pitching this year, but we hung in there and finished like a bunch of champions."

The high point of the season was the 5-4 victory over arch rival AHS.

the blue sky energy

We can't take credit for it. That's just the way it happens to be. Natural gas is clean burning. Doesn't dirty the air. It helps preserve the clean, blue skies of today for tomorrow.

What we can take credit for is working to provide a continuous supply of clean gas energy . . . to warm people, to cool people, to cook their meals, to heat their water, to dry their clothes . . . gas to help industry do its work.

Clean, efficient, versatile Natural Gas . . . the blue sky energy for today and tomorrow.

"The Original Refresher Course."

History.

When man needed transportation, he invented the wheel. When man needed warmth, he discovered fire. And when man needed real refreshment, he invented the real thing. Coca-Cola.

English.

Coca-Cola (Koka-Kola)
Coke (Koke): trademarks which identify the same dark-colored, delicious, carbonated soft drink.
This unique tasting soft drink gives real refreshment, pleasure, fun, quenches thirst, it's the real thing.

Math.

Man X is working in the sun where it is 97°.
Man Y is working in the shade where it is 92°.
Both X and Y then have a bottle of Coca-Cola, (ideally served at 34°).
Construct an equation:

X+Y+refreshing Coca-Cola
=X+Y-thirst.

Poetry.

It's the real thing.
In the back of your mind.
What you're hoping to find.
Is the real thing.

It's the real thing.
That's the way it should be.
What the world wants to see.
Is the real thing.

It's the real thing.
Coke.

Visions . . . That Keep Stirring My Soul

As the year comes to a close and we look back, we reflect upon the many visions of Caprock High School. Each one of us has different memories of the year - but we will never forget how much our friends, teachers, and activities really meant to us.

This book cannot tell it all. A photograph can show action, but it only suggests the atmosphere. At least when we look back at this book, our memories will be stirred. We will remember our visions of the people who made 1977 the year it was.

Jeff,

you have been good guy for a long time
sorry I had to hit
you so hard in football.
See you later.

Stevie
S.

Jeff,

I decided that I would write some more. (I hope you don't mind.)

I just wanted to say "Thanks" for all the smiles you brought me, the pictures you gave me + all the fun times we had. Even when I wanted you to death for your picture, you still gave it to me with a smile + not a sigh of relief.

Real stupid
guy whom I like to pick on a lot
